An Eventing Training Camp in...

Costa Rica Eventing 8-day Camp for IEA & Advanced Jr Riders, June 25th to July 2nd, 2026

Price: $3895* all-inclusive accompanied by SHS-IEA Staff *Fee reflects a $300 discount for IEA Team Members.

Program Overview

Designed for IEA riders and other intermediate to advanced Junior equestrians, this program combines high-level training with an international experience. Riders will train with Leonor Munez, an FEI-level 3 Judge, Trainer and Competitor who spent many years in the USA competing and training. They will be accompanied by their IEA coaches, ensuring continuity, safety, and performance development as well as a fun experience.

Riding & Training

Daily riding (2 sessions per day, 5-6 days), lectures, demos focusing on Eventing and Combined Training, including dressage, cross-country and stadium jumping. Take care of your horse before and after your sessions. L:a Finca Equestrian Center, owned and managed by Leonor, is a meticulously kept facility that often hosts Shows and Competitions for Panamanian and International riders. A Certificate of Completion will be awarded to the successful participants.

Accommodation

Beautiful property located minutes from the riding academy with gardens, two swimming pools, Jacuzzis, restaurant, plenty of activities and comfortable rooms. Breakfast included.

Activities

Both the Stables and the Accommodations are within 20 minutes from the Capital, San Jose, where multiple cultural and fun experiences await. Curated excursions, cultural visits, and tours will take place throughout the stay. Some longer excursions may be optional and subject to a small fee. A van will be at hand 24/7 for our group.

Price & Discounts

8 Days / 7 Nights – $3,895 per rider which reflects a $300 IEA Team Member discount. An additional $100 discount will apply to the fee paid in full before May 15th as flight prices will increase after that. A unique Costa Rican riding and cultural experience at a very fair price!
